

 PWOC History ***

Protestant Women of the Chapel is almost fifty years old. It had its beginning in an Army Chapel in Goepingen, Germany in September of 1953. Since that date, the movement has spread throughout all military service branches around the world. It has become the accepted program for Protestant women in military families.

Adapted to help meet particular needs of women in each branch of service, it is closely related to women's organizations in civilian churches. PWOC offers opportunities for spiritual enrichment, sharing and ministry.

 PWOC Aims ***

TO LEAD women to accept Christ as personal Savior and Lord.

TO TEACH women the history, beliefs, and programs of the Church, all built on a solid foundation of worship and Bible study.

TO DEVELOP in women the skills of prayer, evangelism, stewardship, and social service against a background of personal spiritual development.

TO INVOLVE women in the work of the Chapel in keeping with their interests and abilities.

Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and His wife has made herself ready.
